

Country singer to perform at Hands Across Decatur

By David Gambino Staff Writer Jan 17, 2024 Updated 42 mins ago 0

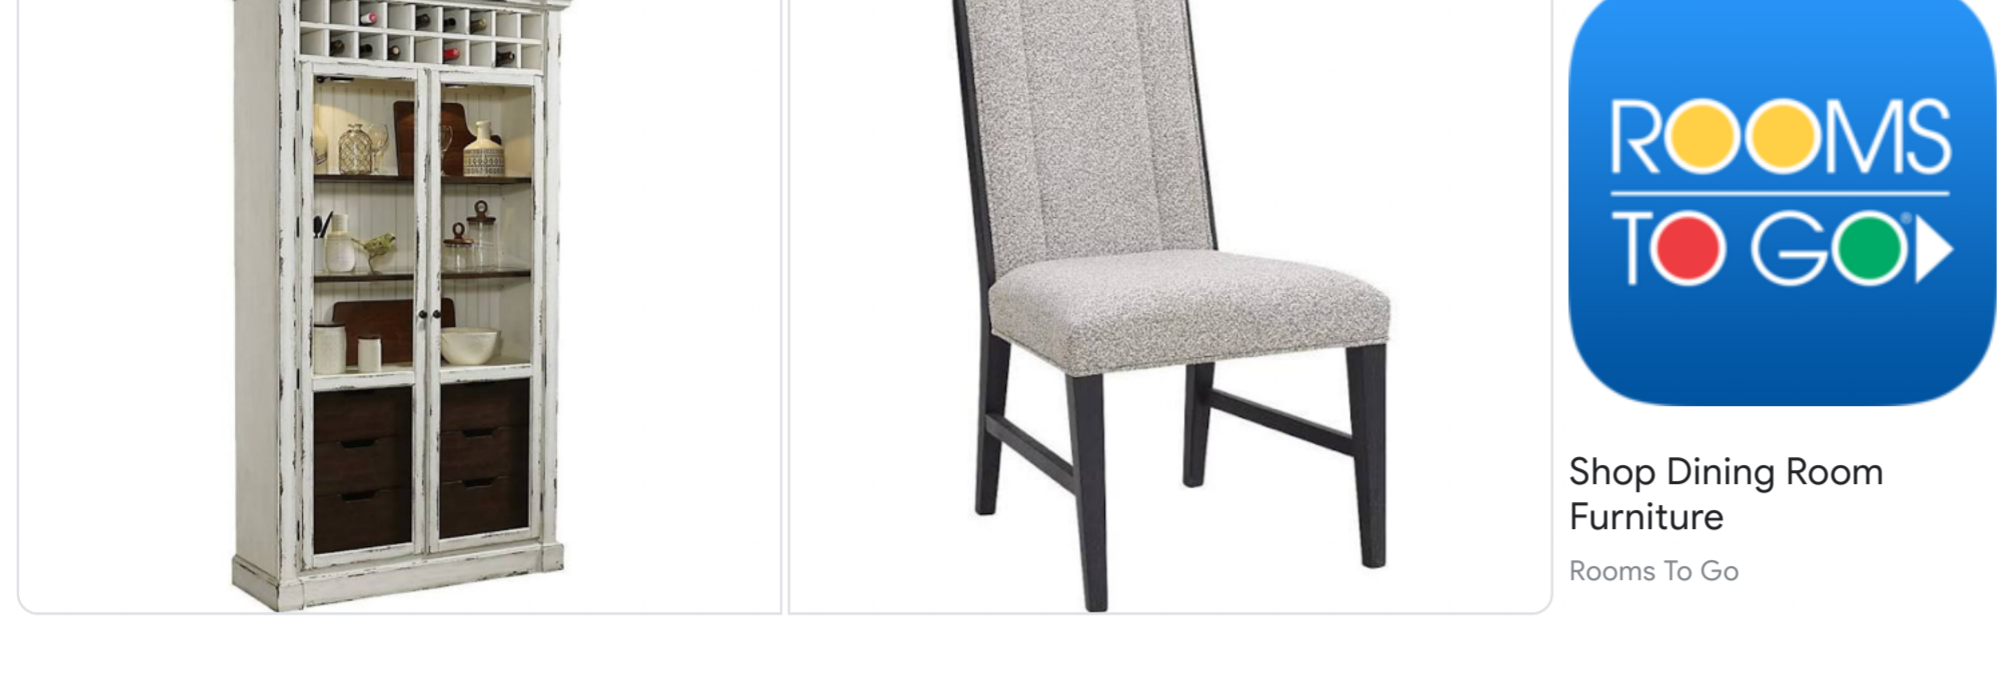

Country singer and songwriter Steven Cade will make a stop on his Giving Guitars Tour on Friday at Hands Across Decatur before performing at B.B. Perrin's later that evening. Print Page

According to the nonprofit Giving Guitars Tour website, Cade has visited more than 60 shelters since October 2021 and partnered with Brent Yates to raise thousands of dollars in donations by giving away guitars.

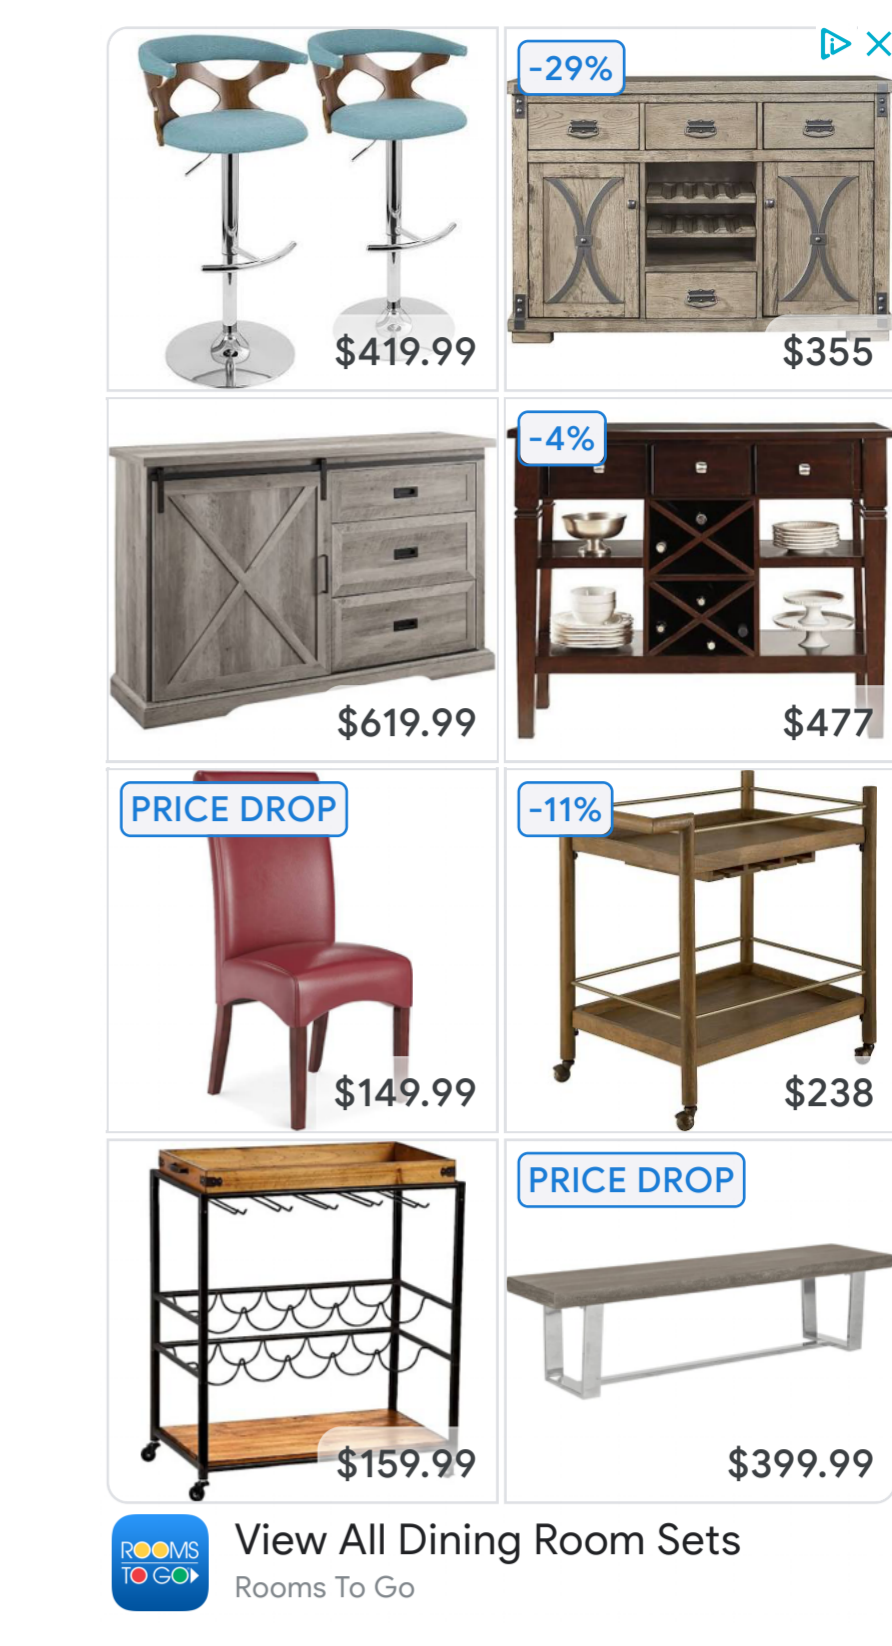

"Our mission is to make a positive impact using music and work towards breaking the cycle of poverty in our country one note at a time," the website reads.

HAD's Director Sue Terrell said in a press release that Cade will visit the organization at 1027 Fifth Ave. S.E. at 11:30 a.m. to donate a guitar and perform live.

"Music changes lives and the guitar is such a powerful tool. Music is healing and allows you to express your stories and brings joy," Cade said in the release.

At 8 p.m. Friday, Cade will perform at B.B. Perrin's located at 608 Holly St. N.E.
