Steven Cade's "Giving Guitars Tour" comes to New Futures Inc

Modern country artist to perform for Huntsville homeless community

Huntsville, AL – Modern country artist Steven Cade has partnered with Brent Yates, co-founder of Restore Us, to raise awareness of the importance of music by donating guitars to inspire those in need. His "Giving Guitars Tour" visits shelters and agencies across the country that offer housing and services to homeless families. Cade tours the facilities, interacts with the residents, donates guitars, and holds live performances. To date, Cade has visited over 40 Homeless Shelters in 11 different states and has gifted over 70 guitars to the residents of these shelters.

Cade shares hope and healing through music. On Monday, April 11th, Steven Cade will visit New Futures Inc at 4:00PM located at 3419 Venona Avenue NW, Huntsville, AL, where he will visit with guests, deliver a guitar, and treat those in attendance and staff to a mini concert.

"Music changes lives and the guitar is such a powerful tool. Music is healing and allows you to express your stories and brings joy," says Cade. "I give back to homeless shelters because it's part of my story, my family has been homeless as well."
