Matthew 25 Partners with Country Artist Steven Cade

We are pleased to announce we have partnered with modern country artist Steven Cade! In an effort to bring awareness to our mission and raise funds for our work, Cade will visit the Matthew 25 facility for a concert and then play two benefit concerts in Nashville.

Cade shares hope and healing through music. On Monday, April 18, Cade will visit the Matthew 25 facility to meet our men, deliver a guitar, and treat the men and staff to a small concert.

On Wednesday, April 20, Cade will perform a benefit concert at The Listening Room at 8pm. On Friday, April 29, he will perform another benefit concert at Puckett's Grocery & Restaurant at 6pm.

You can buy tickets to the Listening Room show here:

“Music changes lives and the guitar is such a powerful tool. Music is healing and allows you to express your stories and brings joy,” says Cade. “I give back to homeless shelters because it's part of my story, my family has been homeless as well.”

Cade's “Giving Guitars Tour” in partnership with Brent Yates and The Gravity of Up visits shelters and agencies across the country that offer housing and services to homeless families and those in need. To date, Cade has visited more than 40 homeless shelters in 11 different states and has gifted over 70 guitars to the residents of these shelters.
